ABOUT THE BOOK

Maya is a playwright with lots of ideas and BIG ambition, and the kids in her Mile End neighborhood are excited to bring her newest drama to life. It's a play about freedom, equality and respect for all. But as her friends try to express ideas of their own, Maya demands complete obedience and loyalty. This is HER queendom after all!

When Maya makes a scene, will her subjects revolt?

KEEP THE CONVERSATION GOING

Here are some ideas, activities and questions to consider after you've read the book:

- _____'s Big Scene: Write about a moment when somebody you know shone. You can even write it as a play if you like!
- If you could write a play about anything, what would it be about?
- Imagine your own queendom or kingdom. What is it like there? How would you rule your subjects?
