About This Book

Mr. Mole, the newest resident of Juniper Hollow, is a very well-mannered fellow. He greets fence posts politely, he compliments watermelons and he generously gives children erasers to eat. His new neighbors are confused, but they befriend him anyway. After all, maybe this is just how things are done back in Moletown . . . and in Juniper Hollow, strangers are just friends waiting to happen!

This hilarious story of compassion, friendship and wacky misunderstandings will tickle readers, and the fuzzy artwork will delight fans big and small.

Keep the Conversation Going

Here are some ideas, activities and questions to consider after you've read the book:

- Use your imagination and design your own glasses!
- Have you ever moved to a new place? What was moving like?
- Write a letter welcoming a new neighbor. What do you want them to know about your neighborhood?
- Design a maze with Mr. Mole at the “start” and his glasses in the “finish” zone. Give it to a friend or family member to see if they can successfully find the right path.
