ABOUT THE BOOK

Evie wants to be scared, and the usual scary stories just aren't cutting it anymore. When she stumbles across a different sort of book, The Truth about Witches, she hopes she's found something thrilling . . . but she's forbidden by a kindly shopkeeper from reading the last page out loud! Naturally, her curiosity gets the better of her, and upon reading the last page out loud — a real summoning spell — Evie is spirited off to a strange land of magic, weird creatures, feasts and actual witches! But these witches aren't as scary as they seem, until Evie asks to join their ranks . . . and only once she does is her quest for true scariness satisfied . . .

KEEP THE CONVERSATION GOING

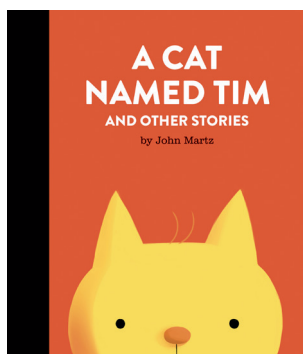

Here are some ideas, activities and questions to consider after you've read the book:

- Do you like to be scared for fun? How do you feel about riding roller coasters? Going into a haunted house? Or even turning off all the lights and reading a scary story?
- The witch asks Evie, "Do you believe everything you read?" Why shouldn't you believe everything you read or hear? What should you do instead?

- Did you read the last page out loud? Why do you think it is so tempting to do something you are told not to? Have you ever done something you were not supposed to? What happened?
