Age: 3-7 | Preschool-Grade 2

About the Book

In the beginning, the universe was one great big thing. Then that thing exploded into gobs and gobs of thingamabobs. All of the thingamabobs had a purpose . . . all except for one small, shapeless thingamabob. No one knew what it was for. It wasn't this or that. It wasn't here or there. What's the use of this thingamabob? But everything changes for Thingamabob when it makes a friend in the park. And Thingamabob realizes that if you aren't one thing . . . you can be anything!

Keep the Conversation Going

Here are some ideas, activities and questions to consider after you've read the book:

- What do you think a thingamabob is? Find a friend or family member and ask them what a thingamabob is to them. What are the similarities and differences in everyone's thingamabob?
- When are you the most creative? Why do you think that might be?
- How do you respond emotionally when you're challenged? When you're lonely? When you're inspired?
