ABOUT THE BOOK

Crocodile hungry.
What can Crocodile eat?
Canned ham? Too hard to open.
Beef jerky? Gets stuck in teeth.
Eggs? Bite shell, get toothache.
Crocodile must find food. But where?

Though Crocodile is surrounded by food, he doesn't know it. He's used to food coming in packages and boxes and in handy tins. Will the hungry crocodile figure it out?

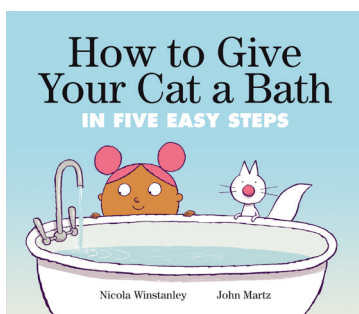

Readers big and little will laugh out loud at the simple but hysterical text and illustrations by debut author Eija Sumner and cartoonist John Martz.

KEEP THE CONVERSATION GOING

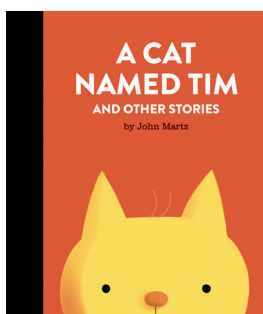

Here are some ideas, activities and questions to consider after you've read the book:

- Everyone is scared of Crocodile when he goes looking for food. Why are people scared of Crocodile? How do you think that makes Crocodile feel?
- Food can come from a variety of places. Where does Crocodile go to find food? Where does your favorite food come from?
- Crocodile experiences many different emotions throughout the story. What are some of the emotions that Crocodile experiences? What emotions do you experience when you are hungry?
- Crocodile creates his own ecosystem when he cries a nicely sized pond. What do you notice about his habitat? What kind of things create a good ecosystem and home for a crocodile?
