About the Book

My best friend is soft, warm and comfy as a ball of cotton.

My best friend doesn't like baths.

My best friend follows me everywhere. We give each other strength. We have no fear.

Full of the heart, affection, sweetness and mischief that every dog possesses, this book will delight dog lovers big and small and remind them of every good thing that a dog is.

Keep the Conversation Going

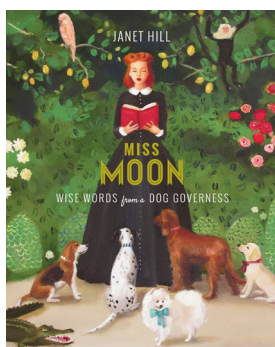

Here are some ideas, activities and questions to consider after you've read the book:

- Who is your best friend? What are the things you like about your best friend?
- Why do you think people have pets? If you had a pet, what would you name it? And if you have a pet, what is its name?
- Come up with a list of all the things you and your best friend would do on the best day ever!
