ABOUT THE BOOK

A story about coming to a new home and the people you meet on an airplane.

On this airplane . . .

Someone travels solo,
two travel as one,
three return
and four set out.

In this simple and moving book, a young family takes a plane to their new home. While onboard, they encounter all the people you meet on a plane: a bookworm, a businessperson, tourists, crying babies and daydreamers . . . all with their own stories and all heading somewhere special.

KEEP THE CONVERSATION GOING

Here are some ideas, activities and questions to consider after you've read the book:

- What would you bring with you on an airplane? On a blank page, draw everything that you'd pack for a trip.
- Everyone does something different to keep them busy during a plane ride. What would you do to occupy your time on a flight?
- In the book, when the plane lands and people walk into the airport, many families are waiting with welcome home signs for their loved ones. Using paper and crayons or markers, make your own welcome home sign.
